BATHROOM HARDWARE

Matching towel bars and hooks in bathroom hardware sets will add a decorative look

Bathroom hardware is an oft-overlooked element of home décor; if chosen well, it keeps your bathroom organized while elevating the appearance of the room. you'll find a premium collection of bathroom hardware, including brushed silver towel hooks and towel bars finished in burnished brass. Let Arrowhead Stairs & Trim provide everything you need for an effortlessly, streamlined, cohesive look.

Many suburban American houses have a mud room, a casual, generally secondary entryway intended as an area to remove and store footwear, outerwear, and wet clothing before entering the main house. As well as providing storage space, a mud room serves to increase the cleanliness of a house proper. Stop by our Design Showroom and check out the endless possibilities for your next project.
